From a single chicken shop to a market leader in providing premium poultry products.

PROUD TO SERVE

Founded by Mina and Jenny Souris in 1982, M&J Chickens started out as a small delicatessen in Wiley Park NSW. Since its inception, M&J has significantly grown and evolved into the market leader in providing premium poultry products - we pride ourselves on consistently bringing fresh chickens and value-added products to every table in Australia and to the global food service sector.

At M&J Chickens, we have a view to continually improve by harnessing the power of market insights to drive our decision-making process. Over the years, our strong growth, attention to world-class processes and technology, and the expertise and commitment of our people, has meant we've been able to meet the demands of the Australian market and export premium products to multiple international locations.

The focus at M&J has, and always will be, on consistently providing superior quality and freshness to all customers. From national caterers, restaurants, family-owned cafés, hotels, clubs, airlines, mining camps, health and aged-care facilities, and correctional and quarantine facilities, M&J is proud to supply the finest in poultry.

When you choose M&J Chickens, you're choosing the best and fresh poultry products in Australia.

1982

FROM HUMBLE BEGINNINGS

Established as a local delicatessen in the Southwestern Suburb of Wiley Park, Mina & Jenny Souris set out to bring the freshest quality produce to the surrounding community. Within a short span of time, the opportunity to supply poultry into the HORECA market was identified and the seed was planted.

1986

THE JOURNEY BEGINS

Mina and Jenny move to the East side of Sloane Street in the vibrant inner-city suburb of Marrickville. With demand growing, M&J continued to expand its reach into the trade and built a strong reputation for service and quality.

2000

NATIONAL AMBITIONS

M&J begins its expansion across Australia. Over the coming years, Queensland, Victoria, South Australia and Western Australia will all become home to local M&J processing facilities. The company owned fleet of vehicles grows beyond 75 to ensure service is maintained with an end-to-end supply chain being the objective.

2005

INNOVATION AHEAD OF THE CURVE

With market demand leaning toward fully cooked products, M&J Chickens takes the bold step in investing in cook & chill capabilities to launch its value-add range. Saving customers time and money and offering consistency, M&J's value add range will grow to be a major part of the business.

2013

BEYOND OUR SHORES

M&J Chickens becomes the first secondary poultry processor to export into Asia and the Middle East. Working closely with international partners, M&J establishes a strong network into both Foodservice and Retail channels under the M&J brand and through private label representation.

2017

AUTOMATION IN PREPARATION FOR THE FUTURE

M&J leads the way again by investing in multi-million dollar state-of-the-art mechanical deboning technology. This is in preparation for future growth plans and to secure M&J's output capabilities.

2018

THE JOURNEY CONTINUES

M&J is majority acquired by The Growth Fund which was identified as the perfect strategic partner for the next phase of the Journey.
